Health Coalition

It's Our Call: Addressing Teen Pregnancy in Forsyth County

A Community Conversation in Conjunction with the National Day to Prevent Teen Pregnancy

- ❖ Every day in Forsyth County, two teens between the ages of 15-19 become pregnant
- ❖ Forsyth County now ranks #25 out of our 100 counties for the highest teen pregnancy rates
- ❖ 50% of our WS/FC high school students report having had sexual intercourse and only 63% of sexually active students used a condom during their last sexual intercourse
- ❖ Only 40% of mothers who have children before age 18 graduate from high school

When: Wednesday, May 4th, 2011
8:30am-10:30am

Location: Truliant Federal Credit Union Pavilion
3200 Truliant Way, Winston-Salem, NC (directions attached)

Facilitator: The Action Team of the Forsyth Adolescent Health Coalition (FAHC)

Participants: Forsyth County Youth/Teen Program Leaders

RSVP: By Wednesday, April 27th to Rolanda Coleman at 336.703.3269 or colemarp@forsyth.cc
OR Yalonda Miller at 336.703.3147 or millerya@forsyth.cc

It's Our Call Project Goals

- Increase community awareness and involvement in the prevention of adolescent pregnancy.
- Create an inclusive community-wide plan with a multi-level approach to educate our youth.

Community Conversation Goals

- Educate the community on teen pregnancy in Forsyth County, NC and how it's currently being addressed
- Present a teen pregnancy prevention community-wide strategy for Forsyth County youth/teen serving programs to participate in
- Develop an action plan with comprehensive solutions to reduce adolescent pregnancies within Forsyth County
- Showcase program activities of current youth development programs

Participant Goals

As a result of attending you will:

- Become part of a community strategy to prevent teen pregnancies
- Identify resources to support your work with youth/teens
- Generate a plan for enhancing your current program
- Connect to a coalition liaison for support of your program's implementation

Please notify us of or forward this invitation to any other youth/teen program leader you may know.

The time for community involvement is now! Be part of the solution.

We hope to see you there!
