	"Experiment in Self-Reliance, Inc. and S.G. Atkins Community Development Corporation, in partnership with Forsyth County's Community and Economic Development department (CED), will expand the Small Business

Project Description	Individual Development Account (IDA) program to assist local small businesses. The program would be able to grow to accept 10 small businesses annually and provide enhanced services to assist Low-to-Moderate income businesses. Additionally, the program will provide enhanced business curriculum and coaching by partnering with Small Business coaches/mentors at S.G. Atkins CDC. This will strengthen the program and assist low-to-moderate income individuals with creating wealth by sustaining and growing their small businesses."

Project Description	Premium Pay to eligible County employees performing essential work during the COVID-19 pandemic.
Sectors Designated as Essential Critical Infrastructure Sectors	Any work performed by an employee of a State, local, or Tribal government;
Number of workers to be served	1,535
	During fiscal year 2021, Forsyth County Government awarded premium pay bonuses to 1,530 employees including 79 FLSA exempt employees who met or exceeded 150% of the County's average annual wage for all occupations ($76,515). During quarter 1 of calendar year 2022, an additional 5 employees received premium pay. To

Premium Pay Narrative	be eligible for premium pay bonuses, County employees must have been full time or part time with benefits and active on the county's payroll at the time the payment was issued. Criteria to receive the bonuses included engagement in regular interactions with people and/or handling of objects handled by others during heightened risks of COVID-19 transmission. More than half of FLSA exempt employees exceeding an annual salary of $76,515 who received a premium pay bonus were directly involved in leading the County's COVID-19 response or performed work involving higher risk of contracting COVID-19 by the nature of the job. This included 23 employees assigned to Public Health and directly involved with the mitigation of the COVID-19 pandemic on an ongoing basis, 17 employees assigned to the Sheriff's Office and directly involved in law enforcement, administrative, and detention services requiring direct physical contact with the general public and residents confined in the detention center, 8 employees assigned to Social Services and directly involved in providing critical services to the community, and 3 employees assigned to Emergency Services directly involved in the treatment and emergency medical care of the community. The remaining 28 FLSA exempt employees who received a premium pay bonus engaged in work that met the eligibility requirements as specified in the resolution adopted by the Forsyth County Board of Commissioners on October 7, 2021.
