Friends of the Paddison Memorial Branch Library work to support and improve the collections and programs of the Kernersville library.

What do the Friends of the Library do?

Taxes alone do not cover all of the operating costs of public libraries. Public funds only cover the basic expenses of operation. Friends of the Library help raise funds for additional purchases of books, computers, software, and programs that make our library complete.

What Are Friends For?

Mission Statement

The Paddison Memorial Branch Friends of the Library are a 501 C-3 non-profit organization of volunteers who join together to promote the development of programs, resources, and services that enhance the library as an informational, educational, and cultural center for the community it serves.

Kernersville Friends of the Library need your support

If you have the time, we encourage you to volunteer. If your time is limited, we still need your support. Your tax-deductible donation helps us to enhance the resources of our library.

How can you become a Friend of the Library?

It's easy! Fill out the form on the back and mail it in or drop it off at the front desk. Membership starts as low as $5.

Your financial support gives the Kernersville library ability to offer the following:

- Develop new programs
- Summer children's reading program
- Story times in-house and community park
- Tail Wagging Therapy reading program
- Teen events year round
- Lego Story Time sustained
- Treats for children
- Book clubs
- Adult programs
- Speakers, performers, and movies
- Staff training
- Extra book purchases
- Purchase audio books and movie DVDs
- Purchase new and emerging equipment

Your yearly donation provides extra resources needed by our library which are not appropriated by the county in their yearly budget.
